COMMUNICATED.

REGRET-BY J. B. JOHNSON. Few pass through life without having memory, now and then, to recall some scene whose body has long been cold and stark, but whose image steals to recollection in company with the figure of Regret; and no dalliance of the flight of time can at all assuage the pain of this mental resurrection. In the history of almost every one, there are many acts, which, if time could reverse its motion, would be cancelled, and in their stead place those of the most holy character.

II. Huntington, Chas. Boswell, Henry Keney, John P. Brace, Calvin Day, Calvin Day, Charles J. Russ. sionally to some incident which chills it like an unholy presence, and makes the soul shrink from the gaze of scrutiny. This feeling of regret will sometimes arise when Loss or Damage by Fire, on Dwellings, Warehouses, Stores, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most least provoked; and though there may not have been anything criminal or heinous in terms. the act which superinduces it, it will hang to the thoughts like poison, and even amid the sway of mirth intrude itself to curb the rising smile. Notwithstanding bright hours often times shed their pleasant rays athwart our path-way to dispel the gloom of care, and brighten life with a generous glow of in-nocent enjoyment, a hidden cause almost invariably tinges it with the sombre hue of regret, and with the birth of every pleasure brings into existence a corresponding pain. How often we thoughtlessly commit acts against the well-being of others, and say things derogatory to their characters, which we would gladly blot from the records of the past; but we are so much absorbed in our peculiar opinions that we too frequently care but little for the affection or favor of those whose sentiments are opposed to ours; particularly if we have the applause and countenance of those who are with us in feeling and thought upon those subjects which elicit most of our attention. But a little expermost of our attention. But a little experience teaches us that honesty and wisdom are not peculiar to any class or denomination, and that however conclusive may be our side of a question to us; others wiser and better may be engaged in conducting the op-posite position of the dispute. It is thus that time teaches to all manly hearts the important lesson of social liberality.

How often do we denounce those who afterwards become our warmest friends-perhaps the very first, when true friendship is needed, to extend the hand of support and encouragement. Sometimes those whom we esteem ought to be shunned, and those whom we shun we should esteem. Often those for whose interest we have done the most, turn causelessly against us, and become our most implacable opponents; and how often are the most violent injuries to another magnaniing of kindness proven to endorse such forgiveness. Hence, is indicated how important it is that we should weed out from our hearts the slightest semblance of bitterness, and learn, not only to treat the claims of our fellow-creatures with consideration, but to show kindness even to a worm; for so surely as we foster a feeling of bitterness, and evince an acrimonious disposition, they will cause many moments of saddened retrospec- H. W. Thomas. tion, and fill our hearts with pungent thoughts when we least expect them; and we W. M. Turner, will often be humiliated by a sense of our T. B. Robertson, own thoughtlessness, under circumstances of W. D. Massey, W. T. Harper, Man's words, like his acts, bring their own reward or punishment; and a kind word own reward or punishment; and a kind word well-timed never passed unrepaid, or a harsh one unpunished. How wise mankind would JAS. T. CLOSE, Actuary & General Agent. be could they break the sullen silence of the future, and know the effect of every cause, and feel at the moment that which it requires years to reveal. But we cannot scan beyond the passing instant; and as we are unable to say who may be our friends or enemies, or who may be a benefit or an injury to us, it is far better to err on the safe side, and have too much confidence in mankind, than to distrust them unkindly; for if we fall into the error of misanthropy, we certainly deprive ourselves of many opportunities of doing good, and place ourselves in a position to be wounded many times by the set opposition of others. If we are considerate f the personal claims of others we will have but few occasions for self-accusation, and smiles instead of sullen curses will meet us as we pass along the auxious path of life.

Then let the animal yield to the mental, the mortal to the immortal attributes of man; and the mind in its untrammeled sway, cull from the bright garden of nature the sweet flowers of happiness, that as we glide rapidly on in Time's fleet bark, leaving far astern many of the joyous scenes of life, they may many of the joyous scenes of life, they may like in Stabler. In bags and barrels, a very excellent Manure, rich in Phosphates, as will appear from annexed Analysis by Dr. R. H. Stabler. live in sacred images on memory's mirror, to be reflected in the hours of silence and rest upon the responsive tablets of the heart; and, as connected with self-reproach, without the slightest shadow of Regret.

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.
The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any other Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of THE CASH AND MUTUAL DRINGLED F. PRINCIPLE.

This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 16th of March, 1854, since which time over five thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over thirty thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having trebled our business during the past year, we feel mously forgiven, and the most generous feel- grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

RHODES' SUPER PHOSPHATE, B. M. RHODES & CO. Office 82, South st., Bowly's wharf, Bultimore. Packed in Barrels and Bags. Price $45 per Ton cash, in Baltimore.

THE attention of Planters of Virginia, is called to this valuable manure, which has been thoroughly tested for the past six years on every description of crop.

This preparation supplies valuable soluble phosphoric acid, the indispensable nutriment of plants. RHODES' Super Phosphate of Lime is a chemi-cal compound, entirely different from the character of the raw materials which are used in preparation. It possesses virtues specifically its own, not borrowed from other natural products, nor imitable by them, and is hence destined to form an indispensable assistant in modern agriculture.

The Model Farm, at Petersburg, (Virginia,) has, through all its various administrations, (first the lamented Nicol, next Mr. Turnbull, and now the present superintendent, Mr. Harris,) endorsed this anywhere else. You shan't stop singing if I can manure as one of great value, and especially adapprevent it—So just call in and get a supply, at "The Southern Farmer," at Petersburg, in their issue of November 27th, notes the best sample of tobacco at the Virginia State Society's Exhibition last fall was grown by Dr. J. W. Hunt, of Notto-way county, with the application of Rhodes' Super Phosphate. The Hon. Wm. L. Goggin, of Bedford county, Virginia, in his address before the Lynchburg Agricultural Society, endorsed this manure, and renarked "that it seemed to him that to secure a very large demand for this preparation was but for it o be known." The South Carolina Agricultural Society, at their annual Fair, held at Columbia 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th November, 1858, through their Committee on

Chemicals, Minerals, &c., reported:
"The committee would call the attention of the society to Rhodes' Super Phosphate of Lime. Experience has proved it to be a valuable fertilizer—said to be superior to Guano."

"Your committee beg leave to say that they have discharged the duty assigned them fearlessly, faithfully, and to the best of their ability.
"John H. Boatwright,

"John H. Maxwell,

length, says:
"We regard the subject of fertilizers so important to our farmers and planters that we do not intend to allow ourselves to be betrayed into a careless expression of opinion, and hence we have examined his (Rhodes') claim with care. We heartily recommend this fertilizer. It has been used upon Tobacco, Wheat, Corn, and other Grains, and Vegetables, with like good results, and differing from Guano in leaving the land in better heart." We could enumerate proof after proof of this valnable Manure, but will refer for particulars to our Pamphlet, which can be had by addressing us or our several Agents, (who will furnish Rhodes' Super Phosphate at our prices, with the simple addition of shipping expenses.) viz: WATERS, ZIMMERMAN & CO.,

CAUTION.—We beg leave to caution purchasers of our choice OLD MONONGAHELA WHISKIES against the deception and petty fraud which is practiced by certain parties in this city and in Baltimore, who have appropriated to them selves exact copies of the Star Brands, long used and designed by us to distinguish our Old Whiskeys.

We can assure our friends and customers, that the unrivalled quality, everywhere acknowledged, of our choice OLD WHISKIES, cannot be equalled by these ingenious invaders of our rights.
Our new establishment, Gibsonton Mills, on the Monongahela River, gives us unequalled facilities for making Whiskey of the choicest kind, from malted and kiin-dried grain. Purchasers of our Old Whiskies will please to notice, the words Girsonton Mills and John Gibsox, Soxs & Co., are inserted in the new Brands which we now adopt; and we deem it a duty to our customers and ourselves, to give notice, that we will prosecute and expose any person or persons who may be reafter copy or use our Brands.
